

THE ALTERNATION

One is all, was resisted!

Thus, eternity turned inside out/outside in for the least time.

The moment of time alternates until the resistance is reconciled.

The rotation switches between positive and negative/negative and positive producing secondary issue for the purpose of completion.

If you look closely at any issue of life, whether physical or mental, you will find a mini-version of the original: a spinning wheel producing output.

All outputs are equally endowed. (one frame at a time)

Every issue is unconditionally supported to recover of its own accord.

“We order pain to show the way
Perfect, perfect, always perfect.”
