

ETERNITY

We must start from the beginning.

“Hold eternity in the palm of your hand.” – Wm. Blake.

The eternal exodus began when one IS all twisted into all as one.

The twist instantly re-shaped to a circle that closed to eternity.

The contortion repeats until all IS one.

This is a wheel turning, a constant source of free energy producing output for the work to be done – just as a hairdryer or anything else for that matter.

The teaching tools are all around us.

We are the work to be done but we can't even begin until we establish where we come from.
