

THE MOB

Eternity is completion.

One IS all.

This is the ancient wisdom we avoid because it requires letting go of who we think we are in deference to who we already are.

We simply don't believe in ourselves.

To understand our weakness in the face of truth it is necessary to realize that as the universal wheel turns through eternity it emits a collective mass of resistance that is controlled by its own sum.

This being serves the collective will.

Individually we avoid responsibility but collectively we are ferocious.

A mob mentality

The beast of our discontent has no life of its own.

It is who we wish to be without admitting it.
