

K.I.S.S.

If you own a body of information, you will command your experience in term of it.

If you know how the universe works you will command your experience in terms of it.

It is much easier to become who you are than it is to become a plumber or a doctor.

The universe works just as a hairdryer: a rotating wheel producing output for work to be done.

Whereas the hairdryer is plugged into a local outlet the universe is plugged into eternity.

“Draw from it as you will, it never runs dry.” – Tao Te Ching
